

FACTSHEET

Introduction

On the tranquil banks of the Ba Lang River stands Can Tho Ecolodge - a proud union of local culture and environment. This luxury Eco-accommodation shares an equally strong devotion to its guests and its location; we want to share the beauty of the Mekong Delta with our visitors and do so in a truly responsible way. To this end, Can Tho Ecolodge is comprised of 12 thatched bungalows, along with a restaurant, bar, spa and swimming pool all constructed of renewable materials. Here, the Mekong Delta's luxuriant tropics take centre stage, captivating guests and enriching their cultural experience in Vietnam's stunning south.

Dining

Restaurant

In our wooden and redbrick restaurant, guests of Can Tho Ecolodge can feel the Mekong's craftsmanship in the elegant décor and views. A capacity of 200, including 30 seats outside, allows for full absorption of the Mekong's culture and environment, all while enjoying food made from sustainable produce that supports local farmers and vendors in the region.

Pool Bar

Next to the swimming pool stands the Pool Bar, serving a fantastic variety of drinks to enjoy under the shady thatched roof. A bar menu offers up local snacks, providing guests with little reason to be anywhere else.

Wellness

Spa

Guests can find tried and tested local therapies in the beautiful spa, the peak of tranquility at Can Tho Ecolodge. Your relaxation is assured by the soothing touch of our skilled masseuses, all of whom are locals of the Mekong Delta and have had full exposure to its distinctive techniques. In indoor and outdoor rooms, guests can submit to the pleasure of massages, therapies and scrubs.

Swimming pool

Shaded by stretching coconut trees and palm-leaf parasols, the swimming pool of the Can Tho Ecolodge shimmers invitingly amongst the greenery of the garden. Take a dip here or recline around the borders with a cocktail amongst the tropics.

What is the 'Eco' in Can Tho Ecolodge?

The call back to nature is a very powerful one for the team behind Can Tho Ecolodge and our guests are sure to have the same devotion to the environment and the survival of Mekong culture. The 'eco' in our name is a badge we wear proudly; it shows that we commit to the way of life in the Mekong through use of clean energy sources, the disposal of safe water into the environment and the construction of buildings using renewable materials.
